MOUND FORT SCHOOL HAS A FIRE WITH MUCH SMOKE

The city fire department was called to the Mound Fort school this morning to extinguish a blaze in the coal bin

Though the damage was slight, the snocke made the beloing of school almost impossible The same trouble was experienced at the Ogden high school a few weeks

On recommenation of Chief George

A. Graves, the children were allowed to go home for the day. The fire department was still at the school at a late hour and water was being thrown on the coal. Fire hose, which had been stretched across the road tied up street car traffic for a two-hour period. It was reported that one of the firemen who responded with the ap paratus, had been overcome with gas from the burning coal. MOTORED FROM SALT LAKE
